FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

On October 16, 2015 at approximately 0010 hours, DFC Douglas Story initiated a traffic stop on a passenger car westbound on I-70 at New Design Road for a traffic violation. During the traffic stop, the odor of marijuana could be smelled coming from the vehicle. A subsequent search of the vehicle revealed a baggie containing approximately 3.5g of crack cocaine. The driver, initially gave a false name but was later identified as 21 year old Rasheed Malik Jones, of the 4000 block of Sheldon Ave, Baltimore, MD. The front seat passenger, 25 year old T'andria Samera Moore, of the 2000 block of Saint Stephens Court, Baltimore, MD was identified by her Maryland Driver's License. Both Moore and Jones were arrested for possession of cocaine and transported to the Frederick County Adult Detention Center for further processing. While at the Frederick County Adult Detention Center, a search of Jones was conducted. Jones was found to be in possession of approximately 10 additional grams of cocaine. Jones was charged with driving without a license, providing false name to uniformed police officer, obstruction, possession of cocaine, possession with intent to distribute cocaine, and knowingly introducing contraband into a place of confinement.
